

12 positive words that start with D: a classroom chart

The D words a class reaches for first, each with its meaning and an example, on one page. All 199 D words: wordsofpositivity.com/positive-words-that-start-with-d

Delightful adj.

Giving great pleasure, charm, or enjoyment.

We spent a delightful afternoon exploring the old bookshop.

Determined adj.

Firmly committed to reaching a goal or solving a problem.

The determined researcher repeated the test until the cause was clear.

Dedicated adj.

Committed to a purpose, task, or responsibility.

The dedicated volunteers checked on every household before the storm.

Dependable adj.

Consistently reliable and worthy of trust.

A dependable teammate follows through and communicates early.

Dazzling adj.

Extremely bright, beautiful, or impressive.

Her dazzling performance earned a standing ovation.

Dream v.

To imagine a desired possibility or future.

The young engineers dream of making clean water easier to reach.

Delight n.

A feeling or source of keen pleasure.

The children's delight made the long rehearsal worthwhile.

Dynamic adj.

Energetic, active, and able to produce change.

The dynamic facilitator kept the discussion focused and inclusive.

Dear adj.

Loved, valued, or regarded with deep affection.

A dear friend kept her company through the long recovery.

Daring adj.

Willing to attempt something difficult, new, or uncertain.

The architect proposed a daring reuse of the abandoned station.

Discover v.

To find or learn something previously unknown.

The students used the microscope to discover a detailed pattern in the leaf.

Diligent adj.

Careful and persistent in one's work or duties.

Her diligent notes allowed the next shift to continue safely.