

12 positive words that start with I: a classroom chart

The I words a class reaches for first, each with its meaning and an example, on one page. All 239 I words: wordsofpositivity.com/positive-words-that-start-with-i

Inspiring adj.

Encouraging people to feel hopeful or eager to act.
The volunteers' patient progress was inspiring.

Incredible adj.

Extraordinarily good, impressive, or difficult to believe.
The choir created an incredible sound in the stone hall.

Intelligent adj.

Able to learn, understand, and use knowledge effectively.
The intelligent assistant checked the source before answering.

Imaginative adj.

Able to form original and useful ideas or images.
The imaginative solution reused materials the team already had.

Innovative adj.

Introducing useful and original ideas or methods.
The innovative program pairs language lessons with paid work experience.

Independent adj.

Able to think, choose, or act without unnecessary support or control.
The course prepared each learner to become an independent researcher.

Inspire v.

To awaken enthusiasm, confidence, creativity, or purpose.
The community garden may inspire more neighbors to grow food together.

Insightful adj.

Showing a clear and useful understanding of something.
Her insightful question exposed an assumption in the plan.

Integrity n.

The quality of acting according to sound moral principles.
Her integrity was evident when she corrected an error that benefited her.

Ideal adj.

Especially suitable for a purpose or situation.
The shaded courtyard is ideal for the afternoon workshop.

Improve v.

To make or become better in quality, condition, or usefulness.
The editor changed the opening to improve clarity.

Impressively adv.

In a way that earns admiration.
The small team worked impressively under a tight deadline.