

12 positive words that start with M: a classroom chart

The M words a class reaches for first, each with its meaning and an example, on one page. All 183 M words: wordsofpositivity.com/positive-words-that-start-with-m

Marvelous adj.

Causing delight or admiration because it is exceptionally good.

The museum has a marvelous collection of local textiles.

Magnificent adj.

Exceptionally beautiful, impressive, or excellent.

The orchestra gave a magnificent final performance.

Motivated adj.

Eager and willing to work toward a goal.

The motivated volunteers finished sorting the donations before noon.

Mindful adj.

Attentive to the present situation and its effects on others.

A mindful pause prevented a hurried answer.

Magical adj.

So delightful or extraordinary that it seems touched by magic.

Fireflies made the summer evening feel magical.

Meaningful adj.

Having real purpose, significance, or value.

The students chose a meaningful project that served their own neighborhood.

Mighty adj.

Possessing impressive strength, influence, or ability.

The tiny seed grew into a mighty oak.

Merry adj.

Cheerful, sociable, and full of enjoyment.

A merry group of neighbors sang as they decorated the hall.

Motivate v.

To give someone a reason or desire to act.

Visible progress can motivate a learner to keep practicing.

Miracle n.

An extraordinary and welcome event that inspires wonder or gratitude.

The doctors called her swift recovery a small miracle.

Masterful adj.

Showing exceptional skill and control.

The conductor gave a masterful reading of the difficult score.

Modest adj.

Not boastful, excessive, or larger than needed.

The modest improvement saved time without creating new complexity.