

12 positive words that start with V: a classroom chart

The V words a class reaches for first, each with its meaning and an example, on one page. All 119 V words: wordsofpositivity.com/positive-words-that-start-with-v

Vibrant adj.

Full of life, color, energy, or activity.

The renovated square became a vibrant place for markets and music.

Valuable adj.

Highly useful, important, or worthy of care.

Her notes provided valuable context for the new team.

Victorious adj.

Having achieved success in a contest or difficult effort.

The victorious debaters thanked the classmates who helped them prepare.

Vivacious adj.

Lively, animated, and attractively full of energy.

The vivacious host drew every guest into the conversation.

Virtuous adj.

Acting according to strong moral principles.

The story asks whether a virtuous choice can also be a difficult one.

Visionary adj.

Able to imagine a better future and a credible path toward it.

The visionary planner protected space for public transit decades ahead.

Valiant adj.

Showing courage and determination in a difficult situation.

The valiant rescue effort continued through heavy rain.

Vital adj.

Necessary, life-supporting, or extremely important.

Clean water is vital to every community.

Vitality n.

Healthy energy, strength, and capacity for growth.

Regular movement restored her sense of vitality.

Value v.

To recognize the worth or importance of someone or something.

Strong teams value careful questions as much as quick answers.

Versatile adj.

Able to adapt or be useful in many different situations.

The versatile hall serves as a classroom, theater, and storm shelter.

Vivid adj.

Bright, clear, and powerfully detailed or expressive.

His vivid description helped the children imagine the reef.