

Positive adjectives that start with T

115 adjectives with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Tactful adj.

Careful to be honest without causing needless offense.
Her tactful correction kept the meeting accurate and respectful.

Tailored adj.

Adapted closely to suit particular needs or circumstances.
The clinic offers tailored support for every stage of recovery.

Take-charge adj.

Ready to accept responsibility and lead action.
The take-charge coordinator found shelter for every family.

Talent-rich adj.

Having an abundance of skilled and capable people.
The talent-rich orchestra could perform several demanding programs.

Talented adj.

Having a strong natural or developed ability.
The talented carpenter also took time to teach the apprentice.

Tamper-resistant adj.

Designed to resist harmful or unauthorized interference.
The tamper-resistant seal keeps the medicine safely protected.

Tangy adj.

Having a pleasantly sharp and lively flavor.
The tangy dressing brightened the roasted vegetables.

Tantalizing adj.

Excitingly attractive or inviting to the senses.
A tantalizing aroma drifted from the bakery.

Tasteful adj.

Showing good judgment in style or decoration.
The tasteful renovation preserved the room's character.

Tasty adj.

Having a pleasant and satisfying flavor.
The cook turned the leftovers into a tasty soup.

Tax-free adj.

Legally exempt from a tax or charge.
The charity received a tax-free donation for the shelter.

Teachable adj.

Willing and able to learn from guidance.
The teachable apprentice welcomed careful feedback.

Team-first adj.

Putting shared success ahead of personal recognition.

The team-first captain praised the substitutes after the win.

Team-oriented adj.

Focused on cooperation and shared success.

The team-oriented captain invited ideas from every player.

Tech-forward adj.

Quick to adopt technology that creates useful improvements.

The tech-forward library lends tablets with its printed books.

Tech-literate adj.

Able to use and understand modern technology confidently.

Tech-literate volunteers helped residents access the online forms.

Tech-savvy adj.

Skilled and confident in using modern technology.

A tech-savvy nurse simplified the digital booking system.

Telegenic adj.

Appearing attractive and engaging on screen.

The telegenic presenter explained the forecast with easy warmth.

Temperate adj.

Moderate, calm, and free from extremes.

Her temperate response lowered the tension in the room.

Tempting adj.

Appealing enough to invite interest or enjoyment.

The cafe displayed a tempting selection of fresh pastries.

Tenable adj.

Reasonable and able to be defended or maintained.

The new evidence made their explanation tenable.

Tenacious adj.

Persistent and unwilling to give up a worthwhile aim.

The tenacious reporter kept checking until the public record was complete.

Tender adj.

Gentle, caring, and sensitive to another's needs.

He gave the injured bird tender care until help arrived.

Tenderhearted adj.

Kind, gentle, and easily moved by others' needs.

The tenderhearted nurse comforted the frightened child.

Terrific adj.

Extremely good, enjoyable, or impressive.

The students did a terrific job restoring the garden.

Tested adj.

Proven reliable through careful use or examination.

The climbers followed a tested safety procedure.

Thankful adj.

Feeling pleased and grateful for help, care, or good fortune.

The hikers were thankful for the warm shelter.

Therapeutic adj.

Helping healing, well-being, or emotional relief.

Gardening proved therapeutic during her recovery.

Thick-skinned adj.

Able to handle criticism without becoming easily discouraged.

The thick-skinned editor considered every comment on its merits.

Thirst-quenching adj.

Relieving thirst in a pleasant and refreshing way.

The runners welcomed the thirst-quenching slices of cold melon.

Thorough adj.

Careful, complete, and attentive to every important detail.

The thorough inspector checked every support.

Thought-provoking adj.

Encouraging serious and worthwhile reflection.

The exhibit asked a thought-provoking question about waste.

Thoughtful adj.

Showing careful consideration for ideas, consequences, or other people.

Her thoughtful question revealed a risk nobody had discussed.

Thrifty adj.

Using money and resources carefully without needless waste.

The thrifty cook made stock from the vegetable trimmings.

Thrilled adj.

Extremely pleased and excited.

She was thrilled to earn a place in the orchestra.

Thrilling adj.

Causing great excitement and delight.

The final match had a thrilling finish.

Thriving adj.

Growing, developing, or succeeding strongly.

The once-empty square now hosts a thriving market.

Tickled adj.

Pleased and amused by something unexpected.

She was tickled by the children's handmade award.

Tidy adj.

Neat, orderly, and easy to understand or use.

The developer left a tidy handover with clear file names.

Tight-knit adj.

Closely connected through loyalty, trust, and mutual support.

A tight-knit neighborhood organized meals for the grieving family.

Time-efficient adj.

Achieving a result without wasting unnecessary time.

The time-efficient route shortened every driver's morning round.

Time-honored adj.

Respected because it has proved valuable over time.

They used a time-honored method to preserve the fruit.

Time-saving adj.

Reducing the time needed to complete something.

The time-saving template made weekly reporting much easier.

Time-tested adj.

Proven reliable through long and repeated use.

The builders chose a time-tested technique for the stone wall.

Timeless adj.

Remaining valuable, beautiful, or relevant across time.

The story carries a timeless message about courage.

Timely adj.

Happening at a useful or appropriate moment.

A timely warning gave residents time to prepare.

Tiptop adj.

Excellent or in the best condition.

The mechanic left the bicycle in tiptop condition.

Tireless adj.

Showing great energy and persistence.

The tireless advocate expanded access to the library.

Toasty adj.

Pleasantly warm, comfortable, and cozy.

Thick curtains kept the reading room toasty all evening.

Tolerant adj.

Willing to allow differences and treat people fairly despite disagreement.

A tolerant community protects the right to live and speak differently.

Toll-free adj.

Available without a charge for making the call.

The shelter opened a toll-free helpline for families seeking emergency housing.

Toothsome adj.

Pleasant and appetizing in flavor.

The cafe serves a toothsome pear tart with toasted almonds.

Top adj.

Highest in quality, rank, or achievement.

The clinic earned top marks for patient care.

Top-caliber adj.

Of exceptionally high quality, skill, or ability.

The clinic recruited top-caliber specialists for the new unit.

Top-class adj.

Belonging to the highest level of quality.

The apprentices received top-class instruction from experienced craftspeople.

Top-notch adj.

Of excellent quality or ability.

The center provides top-notch training for new volunteers.

Top-of-the-line adj.

Representing the best quality currently available.

The workshop installed top-of-the-line safety equipment.

Top-performing adj.

Producing results among the best in a group.

The top-performing filter used less energy than its rivals.

Top-quality adj.

Meeting a very high standard of excellence.

The cooperative sells top-quality produce at fair prices.

Top-rated adj.

Given one of the highest available quality ratings.

The top-rated course pairs practical lessons with individual feedback.

Top-tier adj.

Belonging to the highest level of quality or performance.

Students gained access to top-tier laboratory equipment.

Topflight adj.

Of the highest quality or ability.

A topflight surgeon led the training session.

Touched adj.

Feeling gratitude, sympathy, or warm emotion.

He felt touched by the neighbors' practical kindness.

Touching adj.

Causing warm feelings of sympathy, gratitude, or affection.

The students made a touching tribute to their retiring teacher.

Tough adj.

Strong and able to endure hardship.

The tough little tree survived another dry summer.

Tough-as-nails adj.

Exceptionally strong and resilient when facing hardship.

The tough-as-nails campaigner kept working through months of legal setbacks.

Tough-minded adj.

Practical, determined, and able to face hard facts.

The tough-minded director made the fair but difficult choice.

Toxin-free adj.

Containing no substances known to be poisonous.

The nursery chose toxin-free paint for every room.

Tractable adj.

Able to be managed, handled, or solved effectively.
Better data made the complicated scheduling problem tractable.

Traffic-free adj.

Closed to motor traffic for safety and comfort.
Families enjoyed the traffic-free square on Sunday.

Trailblazing adj.

Introducing a valuable new path or method.
Her trailblazing work made the test widely affordable.

Trainable adj.

Able and willing to learn through instruction and practice.
The trainable puppy quickly mastered the safety cues.

Trained adj.

Taught and practiced in a particular skill.
A trained medic accompanied the hiking group.

Tranquil adj.

Quiet, peaceful, and free from disturbance.
The courtyard becomes tranquil after the market closes.

Trans-affirming adj.

Actively respectful and supportive of transgender people.
The clinic provides trans-affirming care in every department.

Trans-inclusive adj.

Welcoming and including transgender people fairly.
The trans-inclusive policy covers facilities, records, and health benefits.

Transcendent adj.

Surpassing ordinary limits in excellence or meaning.
The choir created a transcendent final movement.

Transferable adj.

Useful in more than one role or situation.
Clear communication is a transferable skill.

Transformative adj.

Causing a major and beneficial change.
The scholarship had a transformative effect on her future.

Transparent adj.

Open, clear, and honest about actions or information.
The transparent report lists both the successful tests and the failures.

Transportive adj.

Powerfully carrying the imagination to another place.
The novel's transportive detail made the vanished city feel present.

Trauma-informed adj.

Designed with awareness of trauma and its effects.
Trauma-informed training helped staff respond with patience.

Travel-friendly adj.

Convenient, durable, or comfortable to use while traveling.

The travel-friendly stroller folds easily on crowded trains.

Treasurable adj.

Worthy of being valued and kept with care.

The recording captures a treasurable moment from the choir's first concert.

Treasured adj.

Deeply valued and cared for.

The quilt is a treasured family keepsake.

Treatable adj.

Able to improve or heal with appropriate treatment.

Early testing revealed a highly treatable condition.

Tremendous adj.

Exceptionally great, impressive, or effective.

The volunteers made a tremendous difference.

Trend-aware adj.

Knowledgeable about current developments without blindly following them.

The trend-aware buyer still chose durable materials.

Trendsetting adj.

Introducing ideas or styles that others later adopt.

The studio's trendsetting designs made repairability fashionable.

Tried-and-true adj.

Proven effective and dependable through experience.

They relied on a tried-and-true repair method.

Trilingual adj.

Able to communicate in three different languages.

The trilingual guide welcomed visitors from across the region.

Trim adj.

Neat, orderly, and in good condition.

Fresh paint left the cottage looking trim.

Triumphal adj.

Celebrating or marking a major success.

A triumphal cheer greeted the returning rescue crew.

Triumphant adj.

Feeling or showing joy after a great success.

The triumphant runners crossed the line together.

Trouble-free adj.

Free from difficulty, problems, or unwanted interruption.

The upgraded pump completed a trouble-free winter.

True adj.

Honest, loyal, accurate, or faithful to what is right.

A true friend offers support and honest advice.

True-blue adj.

Completely loyal, faithful, and dependable.

Her true-blue friends stayed to rebuild the damaged studio.

Truehearted adj.

Sincere, loyal, and kind in character.

The truehearted neighbor helped without seeking praise.

Trust-based adj.

Built on mutual confidence, honesty, and reliability.

The trust-based partnership allowed both teams to share concerns.

Trust-building adj.

Helping confidence and reliability grow between people.

Regular updates became a trust-building practice.

Trusted adj.

Regarded as honest, capable, and dependable.

A trusted neighbor kept the spare key.

Trustful adj.

Willing to place confidence in someone or something.

The trustful child relaxed when her teacher arrived.

Trusting adj.

Willing to believe in another's honesty or care.

Their trusting partnership allowed frank discussion.

Trustworthy adj.

Consistently deserving confidence or reliance.

A trustworthy guide corrects errors openly.

Trusty adj.

Dependable through long or repeated use.

His trusty toolbox contained everything needed.

Truth-based adj.

Grounded in accurate facts and honest evidence.

A truth-based account corrected the harmful rumor.

Truthful adj.

Honest and accurate in expression.

The truthful witness corrected a small error immediately.

Tuition-free adj.

Provided without charging students tuition fees.

The college offers tuition-free courses for unemployed residents.

Tuned-in adj.

Alert to and understanding of people's needs or events.

The tuned-in counselor noticed when the quiet student withdrew.

Tuneful adj.

Having a pleasant and melodious sound.

A tuneful whistle floated across the workshop.

Turbocharged adj.

Made faster, stronger, or more energetic.

The new battery gave the boat turbocharged performance.

Turnkey adj.

Ready for immediate and practical use.

The charity received a turnkey kitchen for its meal program.

Tutelary adj.

Serving as a guardian or protector.

A tutelary figure in the mural watches over the harbor.

Twinkling adj.

Shining with small flashes or lively warmth.

Twinkling lights made the courtyard festive.

Twinkly adj.

Bright, sparkling, and cheerfully lively.

His twinkly smile put the nervous performers at ease.