

Positive adverbs that start with G

12 adverbs with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Gaily adv.

In a cheerful, bright, and lively manner.
Colorful flags fluttered gaily above the market.

Gallantly adv.

In a brave, honorable, and considerate manner.
The crew gallantly continued the rescue through heavy rain.

Generously adv.

In a willing, plentiful, and giving manner.
The farmer generously shared the extra harvest with neighbors.

Gently adv.

In a kind, calm, or careful manner.
The nurse gently explained what the child would feel.

Genuinely adv.

In a sincere, honest, and authentic way.
She was genuinely pleased by her colleague's success.

Gladly adv.

Willingly and with pleasure.
The carpenter gladly showed the apprentice how to sharpen the tool.

Gleefully adv.

With lively delight and happiness.
The twins gleefully chased bubbles across the lawn.

Gracefully adv.

With elegance, kindness, or calm dignity.
The chairperson gracefully acknowledged the opposing view.

Graciously adv.

In a warm, courteous, and generous manner.
The host graciously found seats for the late arrivals.

Grandly adv.

In an impressive, dignified, or splendid manner.
The old staircase rises grandly through the center of the hall.

Gratefully adv.

With sincere appreciation and thanks.
The shelter gratefully accepted the warm blankets.

Gratifyingly adv.

In a way that gives pleasure or satisfaction.
The repaired heating system performed gratifyingly well.