

Positive adverbs that start with O

14 adverbs with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Objectively adv.

With fair attention to facts rather than personal preference.

The judges objectively compared each garden against the published criteria.

Obligingly adv.

In a willing and helpful manner.

The neighbor obligingly moved her car so the van could pass.

Observantly adv.

With careful attention to details and changes.

Mira watched observantly and noticed that the seedlings needed more shade.

Onward adv.

Forward toward further progress.

After fixing the leak, the crew moved onward to the next repair.

Open-mindedly adv.

With fair consideration for unfamiliar ideas or views.

Jon listened open-mindedly when residents proposed a different route.

Openheartedly adv.

With sincere warmth, honesty, and generosity.

They spoke openheartedly and repaired a friendship strained by distance.

Openly adv.

In an honest and direct manner without concealment.

The manager spoke openly about the mistake and how it would be corrected.

Opportunely adv.

At a particularly helpful or favorable time.

A spare key appeared opportunely when the caretaker was delayed.

Optimally adv.

In the best or most effective way for the situation.

The desks were arranged optimally for conversation and clear sightlines.

Optimistically adv.

With hopeful confidence about what may happen.

They optimistically planted a second crop after repairing the greenhouse.

Opulently adv.

In a richly luxurious and impressive manner.

The restored salon was opulently furnished without feeling crowded.

Organically adv.

In a natural, authentic, or gradually developing way.

New friendships formed organically around the shared vegetable garden.

Ornately adv.

With attractive and elaborate decorative detail.

The ceiling was ornately painted with flowers and small stars.

Outstandingly adv.

In an exceptionally good or impressive manner.

The understudies performed outstandingly when the lead actors fell ill.