

Positive adverbs that start with V

15 adverbs with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Valiantly adv.

With courage and determination despite danger or difficulty.
The small team worked valiantly to protect the flooded homes.

Valuably adv.

In a useful, important, or beneficial way.
Her questions valuably redirected attention toward the missing evidence.

Veraciously adv.

With consistent truthfulness and accuracy.
The biographer wrote veraciously about both triumphs and mistakes.

Verifiably adv.

In a way that evidence can reliably confirm.
The revised process is verifiably safer under repeated testing.

Viably adv.

In a way capable of working or succeeding.
The small farm operates viably by sharing expensive equipment.

Vibrantly adv.

With vivid color, lively energy, or strong expression.
Wildflowers bloomed vibrantly along the restored riverbank.

Victoriously adv.

In a way that shows or celebrates success.
The team returned victoriously after completing the rescue challenge.

Vigilantly adv.

With careful watchfulness for danger, error, or change.
Rangers vigilantly guarded the nesting beach throughout the night.

Vigorously adv.

With strength, energy, or determined effort.
Residents campaigned vigorously for safer drinking water.

Virtuously adv.

In a morally good, honest, or principled way.
She acted virtuously by returning the wallet untouched.

Vitally adv.

In an essential, energetic, or life-supporting way.
Wetlands remain vitally important to the region's water supply.

Vivace adv.

In a lively and brisk musical manner.
The quartet played vivace through the bright final movement.

Vivaciously adv.

With lively, animated, and appealing energy.

The host spoke vivaciously without ever overwhelming quieter guests.

Vividly adv.

In a bright, clear, or strongly memorable way.

The mural vividly celebrates the neighborhood's history.

Voluntarily adv.

Freely and through personal choice rather than force.

Neighbors voluntarily shared their tools after the destructive storm.