

Positive nouns that start with D

44 nouns with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Dawn n.

The beginning of daylight or of a hopeful new period.
The agreement marked the dawn of a more peaceful partnership.

Daybreak n.

The time when daylight first appears.
The walkers reached the hilltop just before daybreak.

Daydream n.

A pleasant imagined scene, wish, or future possibility.
Her daydream became a sketch for the neighborhood garden.

Dealmaker n.

A person skilled at bringing parties to workable agreement.
The patient dealmaker found terms both family businesses could accept.

Decency n.

Kind, fair, and morally respectful behavior.
Basic decency led the landlord to offer more time.

Decisiveness n.

The ability to make clear and timely choices.
Her decisiveness prevented the small leak from becoming a flood.

Decorum n.

Polite and dignified behavior suited to an occasion.
The chair restored decorum by giving each speaker equal time.

Dedication n.

Steady commitment of time and effort to a purpose.
Years of dedication helped the violinist master the difficult piece.

Defender n.

A person who protects or supports someone or something.
She became a determined defender of the village woodland.

Defense n.

Protection of a person, principle, or place from harm.
Their defense of the wetland preserved clean water downstream.

Deference n.

Respectful regard for another person's judgment, wishes, or experience.
Out of deference, the committee let residents speak first.

Deftness n.

Skill, speed, and precision in action or thought.
The nurse's deftness made the bandage change quick and gentle.

Delight n.

A feeling or source of keen pleasure.

The children's delight made the long rehearsal worthwhile.

Deliverance n.

Rescue or release from danger, hardship, or restriction.

The rescue boat brought deliverance to the stranded crew.

Dependability n.

The quality of being reliable and worthy of trust.

The nurse's dependability reassured patients and colleagues.

Determination n.

Firmness of purpose despite difficulty or delay.

Their determination kept the search going through the night.

Devotee n.

An enthusiastic and committed admirer, supporter, or participant.

A longtime jazz devotee organized the free listening sessions.

Devotion n.

Deep love, loyalty, or commitment shown through action.

His devotion to the rescue dogs shaped his daily routine.

Dexterity n.

Skill and ease in using the hands or mind.

The watchmaker's dexterity allowed her to fit the tiny spring.

Dialogue n.

An open exchange of views intended to build understanding.

Patient dialogue gave both neighborhoods a workable traffic plan.

Dignity n.

The state of being worthy of honor and respectful treatment.

The new shelter gives every resident privacy and dignity.

Diligence n.

Careful and persistent effort in work or duty.

Her diligence kept the historical record accurate.

Diplomacy n.

Skill in handling relationships and disagreements peacefully.

Patient diplomacy led both groups toward a workable agreement.

Diplomat n.

A person skilled at resolving disagreement with tact.

A natural diplomat, Priya found common ground without hiding differences.

Discernment n.

The ability to notice differences and make sound judgments.

Her discernment kept a polished rumor out of the report.

Discipline n.

Steady self-control used to build skill or meet a goal.

Daily practice and discipline strengthened the young choir.

Discoverer n.

A person who finds or learns something previously unknown.
The curious child felt like a discoverer beside the tide pool.

Discovery n.

The act or result of finding something new or valuable.
The cave painting was an important archaeological discovery.

Discretion n.

Good judgment that respects privacy, timing, and possible consequences.
The counselor used discretion when arranging a private entrance.

Distinction n.

Excellence that earns special respect or recognition.
She completed the demanding course with distinction.

Diversity n.

The presence and inclusion of varied people, ideas, or things.
The garden's diversity supports insects throughout the season.

Dividend n.

A welcome benefit or return produced by earlier effort.
Years of patient training paid a safety dividend during the storm.

Divinity n.

Sacred nature or a quality of supreme beauty.
The choir found divinity in the chapel's simple acoustics.

Doddle n.

An informally easy or pleasantly simple task.
With the labeled cables, setup became a doddle.

Doer n.

A person who turns useful ideas into action.
Sam is a practical doer who always brings the right tools.

Donation n.

Something freely given to support a person or cause.
A book donation doubled the school library's collection.

Donor n.

A person who gives something valuable to help others.
Every blood donor received a note of thanks.

Doyen n.

A respected and experienced senior member of a field.
The doyenne of local journalism still mentors new reporters.

Dreamboat n.

An informally very attractive or charming person.
Everyone considered the warmhearted new guitarist a dreamboat.

Dreamer n.

A person who imagines hopeful possibilities or ambitious goals.
The young dreamer sketched a park where the car park once stood.

Dreamland n.

A pleasantly ideal place or state of imagination.

The lanterns transformed the small courtyard into dreamland.

Drive n.

Strong energy and determination to achieve something.

Her drive turned a small food collection into a weekly service.

Durability n.

The ability to remain strong and useful over time.

The bridge's durability comes from careful maintenance.

Dynamo n.

An energetic and highly effective person.

Our fundraising dynamo recruited forty volunteers in one weekend.