

Positive nouns that start with E

68 nouns with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Eagerness n.

Enthusiastic readiness to act, learn, or take part.
Her eagerness to learn impressed the workshop leader.

Early adopter n.

A person who embraces useful innovations before most others.
The early adopter helped colleagues learn the new accessibility tools.

Early bird n.

A person who begins activities promptly or ahead of others.
The early bird secured a quiet table for the study group.

Early riser n.

A person who habitually starts the day early.
The early riser enjoyed an unhurried walk before breakfast.

Earth angel n.

A remarkably kind person who brings comfort and help.
Our earth angel delivered warm meals throughout the difficult week.

Eco-warrior n.

A determined person who actively protects the environment.
The young eco-warrior persuaded the council to restore the wetland.

Ecstasy n.

A feeling of overwhelming happiness or joyful excitement.
Winning the scholarship filled the aspiring nurse with ecstasy.

Edification n.

Instruction that improves knowledge, character, or understanding.
The public lectures offered both enjoyment and edification.

Education n.

The process of gaining useful knowledge and developing abilities.
Education opened new possibilities for three generations of the family.

Educator n.

A person who helps others gain knowledge and skill.
The patient educator welcomed questions from every new apprentice.

Efficacy n.

The ability to produce a desired or useful result.
The trial confirmed the vaccine's efficacy in older adults.

Efflorescence n.

A period of flowering, creativity, or flourishing development.
The neighborhood entered an efflorescence of music and public art.

Egalitarianism n.

The principle that people deserve equal rights and opportunities.
Egalitarianism shaped the cooperative's transparent pay structure.

Elation n.

Great happiness arising from welcome news or achievement.
News of the successful rescue brought elation to the village.

Elegance n.

Graceful beauty or pleasing simplicity in form or method.
The bridge's elegance came from its clear and economical design.

Elixir n.

Something believed to restore health, strength, or happiness.
For the tired walkers, hot soup felt like an elixir.

Eloquence n.

Clear, graceful, and persuasive expression in speech or writing.
The advocate's quiet eloquence changed several minds.

Emancipator n.

A person who frees others from unjust control.
The museum honors the emancipator who challenged bonded labor.

Eminence n.

High distinction, respected rank, or recognized achievement.
Her eminence in engineering drew students to the seminar.

Empath n.

A person highly sensitive to other people's feelings.
As an empath, Noor noticed when a quiet colleague needed support.

Empathy n.

The ability to understand and share another person's feelings.
Empathy helped the manager respond to the mistake with care.

Empowerment n.

Confidence, authority, and practical ability to shape outcomes.
Shared decision-making gave residents a genuine sense of empowerment.

Encomium n.

A speech or piece of writing offering warm praise.
The retiring doctor received an encomium from her grateful colleagues.

Encore n.

An additional performance requested by an appreciative audience.
Loud applause brought the jazz trio back for an encore.

Encouragement n.

Support that gives someone confidence or hope.
A few words of encouragement helped her finish the climb.

Encourager n.

A person who gives others confidence, hope, and support.
Every young musician needs an encourager during difficult practice sessions.

Endearment n.

A word or action expressing love and affection.

Grandmother's familiar endearment always made the children smile.

Endeavor n.

A serious and determined effort toward a worthwhile goal.

The bridge restoration became a community endeavor.

Endowment n.

A lasting gift of money, property, or natural ability.

The library's endowment protects free membership for future generations.

Endurance n.

The ability to continue through effort, pain, or difficulty.

Years of hiking built the endurance needed for the expedition.

Energizer n.

A person or activity that restores enthusiasm and energy.

The drummer became the parade's tireless energizer.

Energy n.

Lively strength and enthusiasm for activity or effort.

Fresh ideas brought new energy to the volunteer campaign.

Engagement n.

Active, interested, and committed involvement in an activity.

Student engagement increased when lessons included practical experiments.

Enjoyment n.

The pleasure or satisfaction gained from an experience.

Shared music brought enjoyment to the whole neighborhood.

Enlightenment n.

Greater knowledge, insight, or freedom from misunderstanding.

The discussion led to enlightenment rather than further argument.

Enrichment n.

An improvement that adds knowledge, value, or enjoyment.

Weekend art classes provide enrichment for children across the district.

Entente n.

A friendly understanding or cooperative agreement between groups.

The two clubs formed an entente to share training facilities.

Enterprise n.

An energetic and purposeful project or undertaking.

The repair café began as a small neighborhood enterprise.

Entertainer n.

A performer who gives people pleasure and enjoyment.

The versatile entertainer had the whole family laughing together.

Entertainment n.

An activity or performance that provides enjoyment.

Street entertainment drew a cheerful crowd to the square.

Enthusiasm n.

Strong and lively interest in an activity or purpose.

Her enthusiasm persuaded ten neighbors to join the cleanup.

Enthusiast n.

A person with strong interest and eager enjoyment.

A local history enthusiast identified the people in the photograph.

Epiphany n.

A sudden and valuable moment of clear understanding.

During the lesson, he had an epiphany about the pattern.

Equality n.

The state of having equal rights, value, or opportunity.

The policy advances equality by removing an unnecessary barrier.

Equanimity n.

Calmness and balance during stress or difficulty.

She accepted the unexpected delay with equanimity.

Equilibrium n.

A stable and healthy state of balance.

The restored wetlands gradually returned to ecological equilibrium.

Equipoise n.

A state of calm balance between different forces.

Careful scheduling restored equipoise between work and family time.

Equity n.

Fairness achieved by recognizing different needs and barriers.

The scholarship promotes equity for students from remote communities.

Erudition n.

Extensive knowledge gained through careful study.

Her erudition gave the documentary unusual depth and clarity.

Esprit n.

Lively intelligence, enthusiasm, and cheerful spirit.

The new conductor brought wit and esprit to rehearsals.

Esteem n.

Warm respect and admiration for someone's worth or ability.

Her colleagues held the careful researcher in high esteem.

Eudaimonia n.

Deep well-being created by living meaningfully and flourishing.

The course explored how friendship and purpose support eudaimonia.

Eunoia n.

Goodwill shown through friendly and helpful intentions.

Her eunoia appeared in every patient and generous reply.

Euphony n.

A pleasing and harmonious combination of sounds.

The choir achieved a warm euphony in the closing chord.

Euphoria n.

An intense feeling of happiness and well-being.
Crossing the finish line brought a rush of euphoria.

Evolution n.

A gradual process of growth, development, or improvement.
The design's evolution reflects years of user feedback.

Exactitude n.

Great accuracy, care, and precision in work or thought.
The conservator recorded every color change with exactitude.

Excellence n.

The quality of being exceptionally good.
The workshop is known for excellence in traditional joinery.

Excitement n.

A lively feeling of happiness, interest, and anticipation.
Excitement grew as the observatory roof slowly opened.

Exemplar n.

A person or thing worthy of being imitated.
The restored station is an exemplar of thoughtful public design.

Expertise n.

Advanced knowledge or skill in a particular area.
Her conservation expertise saved the fragile wall painting.

Exploration n.

Curious investigation that seeks knowledge, places, or possibilities.
Ocean exploration revealed a thriving deep-water habitat.

Explorer n.

A curious person who investigates unfamiliar places or ideas.
The young explorer carefully mapped every path through the reserve.

Extravaganza n.

An elaborate and spectacular show or celebration.
The school ended its anniversary with a musical extravaganza.

Exuberance n.

Lively energy, happiness, and enthusiastic expression.
The children's exuberance filled the reopened playground.

Exultation n.

Triumphant joy following a victory or welcome success.
The rescue announcement prompted exultation throughout the crowded hall.

Eye-catcher n.

A person or thing that attracts admiring attention.
The restored clock became an eye-catcher in the station hall.

Eye-opener n.

An experience that brings important new understanding.
The accessibility audit was an eye-opener for the design team.