

Positive nouns that start with F

56 nouns with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Fair play n.

Respectful conduct that follows just rules and equal treatment.

Fair play mattered more to the captain than an easy victory.

Fairness n.

The quality of treating people reasonably and impartially.

Rotating the best shifts improved fairness across the team.

Faith n.

Trust or confidence in someone, something, or a belief.

Her faith in the apprentices encouraged them to try again.

Familiarity n.

Comfortable knowledge gained through experience or contact.

Familiarity with the route helped the driver avoid delays.

Family n.

People connected by care, commitment, birth, or shared life.

The whole family gathered to plant a tree for their grandmother.

Fan n.

A person who enthusiastically supports someone or something.

Every young player needs a loyal fan in the stands.

Fanfare n.

A lively public celebration of an arrival or achievement.

The champions returned to music, banners, and cheerful fanfare.

Fascination n.

A strong feeling of interest, attraction, or wonder.

Her fascination with maps led to a career in surveying.

Favor n.

An act of kindness or helpful approval.

A neighbor did us a favor by watering the seedlings.

Fearlessness n.

Courage that prevents fear from controlling action.

Her fearlessness inspired the witnesses to speak.

Feast n.

A generous meal or rich source of enjoyment.

The harvest feast brought every generation to one table.

Feat n.

An achievement requiring notable skill, courage, or effort.

Crossing the channel safely was a remarkable feat of teamwork.

Felicity n.

Deep happiness or an especially apt expression.
The reunion brought her a quiet sense of felicity.

Fellow feeling n.

Shared sympathy and understanding for another person's experience.
Hard years had given the neighbors genuine fellow feeling.

Fellowship n.

Friendly connection and support among people with shared interests.
The weekly meal created fellowship among new residents.

Fervor n.

Strong and sincere enthusiasm or devotion.
The volunteers' fervor carried the project through winter.

Festival n.

An organized celebration featuring shared cultural or social activities.
The spring festival filled the riverfront with music and crafts.

Fidelity n.

Faithfulness, loyalty, or exactness in carrying out a duty.
The restoration's fidelity to the original design impressed historians.

Fightback n.

A determined recovery after difficulty or disadvantage.
The team's second-half fightback turned defeat into a draw.

Finalist n.

A competitor who reaches the last stage of a contest.
Each finalist presented a practical solution to the judges.

Finesse n.

Skillful and delicate handling of a task or situation.
The mediator resolved the final disagreement with finesse.

Finisher n.

A person who reliably completes what they begin.
Mara is a determined finisher who never abandons a useful project.

Fireball n.

An exceptionally energetic and lively person.
The new drummer is a fireball who energizes every rehearsal.

Firecracker n.

A lively person with impressive energy and spirit.
Their youngest striker is a firecracker on the field.

Flag-bearer n.

A leading representative of a respected cause or group.
She became a flag-bearer for accessible playground design.

Flair n.

A natural talent or appealing sense of style.
She has a flair for making technical lessons enjoyable.

Flexibility n.

The ability to adapt easily when needs or conditions change.
Schedule flexibility let both parents attend the school meeting.

Flexitime n.

A schedule allowing workers to vary their working hours.
Flexitime helped parents manage school runs without missing meetings.

Fondness n.

A warm feeling of affection or liking.
His fondness for old maps began in his grandfather's study.

Foodie n.

A person who enthusiastically explores and appreciates food.
The curious foodie sampled every regional dish at the market.

Forbearance n.

Patient self-control when facing annoyance or difficulty.
His forbearance kept the crowded meeting respectful and useful.

Forefront n.

The leading position in an important field or movement.
Her laboratory remains at the forefront of affordable diagnostics.

Forerunner n.

A pioneer who prepares the way for later progress.
The early cooperative was a forerunner of today's repair cafes.

Foresight n.

The ability to anticipate needs and plan wisely.
The council's foresight preserved the riverbank as public land.

Forethought n.

Careful consideration of future needs before taking action.
A little forethought kept the outdoor event comfortable and safe.

Forgiveness n.

The act of releasing resentment after a wrong.
Forgiveness allowed the old friends to begin rebuilding trust.

Fortitude n.

Courage and endurance during pain or difficulty.
She faced months of rehabilitation with quiet fortitude.

Fortune n.

Good luck or a valuable amount of wealth or success.
Good fortune brought clear weather for the village fair.

Foundation n.

A firm base or guiding principle that supports growth.
Mutual trust became the foundation of the partnership.

Founder n.

A person who establishes an organization or useful project.
The founder still teaches one free class each month.

Fragrance n.

A pleasant and distinctive scent.

The fragrance of orange blossom drifted through the courtyard.

Freebie n.

A welcome item provided without any charge.

Every visitor received a seed packet as a freebie.

Freedom n.

The power or right to act, speak, or live without unjust restraint.

The ramp gave Amir the freedom to enter the hall independently.

Freethinker n.

A person who forms conclusions independently of convention.

The curious freethinker tested each claim against the evidence.

Friend n.

A trusted person joined to another by mutual affection.

A good friend listened quietly before offering practical help.

Friendliness n.

Warm, welcoming, and considerate behavior toward others.

The receptionist's friendliness calmed the anxious first-time visitor.

Friendship n.

A caring and trusting relationship between people.

Their friendship grew through years of shared volunteer work.

Frisson n.

A sudden pleasurable thrill of excitement.

A frisson of anticipation passed through the opening-night audience.

Front-runner n.

The leading or most likely successful competitor.

Her low-cost design emerged as the clear front-runner.

Frugality n.

Careful and sensible use of money or resources.

Their frugality left enough funds for an emergency repair.

Fruition n.

The successful realization of a plan or hope.

Years of fundraising brought the community pool to fruition.

Full marks n.

The highest score or an expression of complete approval.

The apprentice earned full marks for her precise safety checks.

Fundraiser n.

An event organized to collect money for a helpful cause.

The school fundraiser paid for new library computers.

Funfair n.

A lively amusement area with rides, games, and treats.

The traveling funfair opened beside the park on Friday.

Furtherance n.

Active support that helps a cause or plan advance.

The grant was awarded in furtherance of rural literacy.

Future n.

The time ahead and the possibilities it may bring.

The scholarship gives talented students a brighter future.