

Positive nouns that start with H

86 nouns with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Hall-of-famer n.

A person honored among the finest in a field.

The hall-of-famer spent the afternoon coaching young pitchers.

Hallelujah n.

An expression of joyful praise, thanks, or relief.

A heartfelt hallelujah rose from the choir at sunrise.

Hallmark n.

A quality that clearly distinguishes something as excellent or genuine.

Careful listening is a hallmark of her leadership.

Halo n.

A glow or aura suggesting goodness and admiration.

Morning light gave the mountain ridge a golden halo.

Handclasp n.

A warm grip of hands showing welcome or support.

Their firm handclasp sealed a friendship formed during the rescue.

Handicraft n.

Decorative or useful work made through skilled handwork.

Her intricate handicraft earned first prize at the fair.

Handsel n.

A gift given to mark a promising beginning.

The neighbors offered a fruit tree as a housewarming handsel.

Handshake n.

A clasp of hands expressing welcome, agreement, or respect.

A friendly handshake helped the nervous applicant feel welcome.

Happiness n.

The feeling or condition of being happy and satisfied.

Sharing the harvest brought genuine happiness to the volunteers.

Happy camper n.

A person who feels cheerful and fully satisfied.

After the upgrade, every passenger was a happy camper.

Happy ending n.

A favorable conclusion that brings relief or joy.

The safe return of the lost dog gave everyone a happy ending.

Happy medium n.

A satisfying balance between two contrasting choices.

The flexible schedule found a happy medium for both teams.

Hardihood n.

Bold courage and strength in difficult conditions.

Their hardihood carried the expedition through another freezing night.

Hardiness n.

The ability to remain strong in difficult conditions.

The plant's hardiness makes it suitable for windy gardens.

Harmonization n.

The process of bringing different parts into agreement or balance.

The harmonization of the two schedules made shared lessons possible.

Harmonizer n.

A person or thing that helps different parts work well together.

As the group's harmonizer, Luis found common ground in tense meetings.

Harmony n.

A pleasing state of agreement, balance, or musical combination.

The neighbors worked in harmony to restore the shared courtyard.

Haven n.

A safe and peaceful place or situation.

The reading room became a quiet haven during the busy festival.

Head start n.

An early advantage that improves the chance of success.

Daily reading gave the preschoolers a valuable head start.

Head-turner n.

A person or thing that attracts admiring attention.

The restored roadster was a head-turner at the summer show.

Headliner n.

The leading performer or main attraction at an event.

The hometown singer returned as the festival's headliner.

Headway n.

Forward progress toward a goal.

The research team made headway after simplifying the test.

Healer n.

A person or practice that helps restore health or wholeness.

The village knew the nurse as a skilled and compassionate healer.

Health n.

The condition of being physically, mentally, or socially well.

Regular rest is essential to long-term health.

Healthiness n.

The quality or state of being healthy.

The leaves' deep color is a sign of the plant's healthiness.

Heart n.

The center of a person's courage, affection, or deepest feelings.

She put her whole heart into welcoming the new students.

Heart-to-heart n.

An honest and caring conversation about personal feelings.
A quiet heart-to-heart helped the sisters understand each other.

Hearth n.

A warm center of home, comfort, and belonging.
Friends gathered around the hearth after their snowy walk.

Heartsease n.

Peace of mind and freedom from worry.
News of the successful rescue restored her heartsease.

Heartthrob n.

A person widely admired for charm or attractiveness.
The gracious young actor became an unexpected matinee heartthrob.

Heaven n.

A state or place of complete happiness and peace.
For the tired hikers, the warm cabin felt like heaven.

Heavyweight n.

A leading person of exceptional influence or ability.
The conference paired an industry heavyweight with emerging designers.

Heirloom n.

A valued object preserved and passed through generations.
The family displayed the restored clock as a treasured heirloom.

Hello n.

A friendly greeting used when meeting someone.
A cheerful hello helped the new student relax.

Helper n.

A person who provides useful assistance.
Each new reader was paired with a patient helper.

Helpfulness n.

The quality of willingly providing useful assistance.
Her helpfulness made the first day easier for everyone.

Helpline n.

A service offering advice, information, or urgent support.
The free helpline connected displaced residents with temporary housing.

Helpmate n.

A supportive companion who shares work and responsibility.
For fifty years, each had been the other's trusted helpmate.

Heritage n.

Valued traditions, qualities, or places passed down through generations.
The festival celebrates the town's musical heritage.

Hero n.

A person admired for courage, character, or outstanding achievement.
The lifeguard became a local hero after the difficult rescue.

Heroine n.

A woman admired for courage, character, or outstanding achievement.
Young readers saw the scientist as the heroine of the story.

Heroism n.

Exceptional courage or selfless action in a difficult situation.
The rescue displayed quiet heroism rather than showmanship.

Heyday n.

The period of greatest success, strength, or popularity.
The renovated ballroom regained the sparkle of its heyday.

Hidden gem n.

An excellent person, place, or thing not widely known.
The tiny neighborhood museum is a genuine hidden gem.

Hideaway n.

A peaceful, secluded place for rest or privacy.
They found a quiet woodland hideaway beside the stream.

High point n.

The most enjoyable or successful part of something.
Meeting the young inventors was the conference's high point.

High road n.

The honorable course of action in a difficult situation.
She chose the high road and answered criticism with fairness.

High spirits n.

A cheerful, lively, and confident state of mind.
The band's high spirits spread quickly through the crowd.

High-five n.

A celebratory slap of raised hands between people.
The teammates shared a high-five after completing the relay.

Highlight n.

The most enjoyable, impressive, or memorable feature.
The children's orchestra was the highlight of the festival.

Hilarity n.

Loud or widespread amusement and laughter.
The costume mishap caused harmless hilarity backstage.

Hit n.

A person or thing that achieves great popularity or success.
The accessible garden guide became an immediate hit with families.

Holiday n.

A welcome period of celebration, rest, or recreation.
The family spent the holiday exploring quiet coastal paths.

Holiness n.

The state of spiritual purity and sacred goodness.
Her faith connected holiness with humble service to others.

Homage n.

Public respect or honor shown to someone admirable.

The concert paid homage to generations of local musicians.

Home n.

A place where someone belongs and can feel secure.

The renovated apartment finally felt like home.

Home run n.

An outstanding success or especially effective achievement.

The redesigned playground was a home run with local families.

Homecoming n.

A joyful return to one's home or familiar community.

The sailor's homecoming brought three generations to the station.

Honesty n.

The quality of being truthful, sincere, and fair.

Their honesty about the setback preserved the community's trust.

Honey n.

An affectionate name for someone loved or cherished.

She greeted her granddaughter with a warm hello, honey.

Honeymoon n.

A joyful trip or period following a marriage.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon walking through the Dolomites.

Honorable mention n.

Formal recognition for work that deserves special praise.

Her first short story earned an honorable mention from the judges.

Honoree n.

A person receiving public respect, praise, or an award.

Each honoree spoke about the mentors who had helped them.

Honorific n.

A title that formally expresses respect or distinction.

The community bestowed an honorific on its longtime physician.

Hooray n.

A cheerful shout expressing joy, approval, or encouragement.

A loud hooray greeted the final runner across the line.

Hootenanny n.

A lively social gathering with folk music and dancing.

The harvest hootenanny brought musicians from five neighboring towns.

Hope n.

A confident wish or reason to expect a good possibility.

The successful trial gave patients new hope.

Hopefulness n.

A feeling that a good outcome remains possible.

The first green shoots renewed her hopefulness.

Horsemanship n.

Skill and care in riding and handling horses.

Her calm horsemanship earned the nervous mare's trust.

Hosanna n.

An expression or song of praise and adoration.

The congregation raised a joyful hosanna at the celebration.

Hospitality n.

Friendly and generous treatment of guests or newcomers.

Their hospitality made the exchange students feel at ease.

Hotshot n.

A notably skilled and successful person in a field.

The young coding hotshot gladly mentored the beginner team.

Housewarming n.

A celebration held when someone moves into a new home.

Their housewarming introduced the newcomers to the whole block.

Hugger n.

An affectionate person who readily offers warm embraces.

The family's youngest hugger welcomed everyone at the door.

Humanism n.

A belief emphasizing human dignity, welfare, and potential.

Her humanism inspired decades of work for equal access.

Humanitarianism n.

The belief and practice of protecting human well-being and dignity.

Her humanitarianism shaped decades of practical relief work.

Humanity n.

Compassionate understanding and care for other people.

The judge tempered the decision with wisdom and humanity.

Humdinger n.

An exceptionally good or impressive person or thing.

The final song was a humdinger that brought everyone to their feet.

Humility n.

The quality of recognizing one's limits without seeking undue importance.

His humility made it easy for junior colleagues to offer corrections.

Humor n.

The quality of seeing or expressing what is amusing.

A little humor helped everyone relax before the presentation.

Humorist n.

A writer or performer skilled at creating amusement.

The gentle humorist found comedy in ordinary family routines.

Hurrah n.

A shout of joy, support, or celebration.

Three hearty hurrahs honored the returning rescue crew.

Huzzah n.

An enthusiastic shout of approval or delight.

The cast raised a huzzah when the curtain reopened.

Hydrotherapy n.

Water-based treatment that supports movement, comfort, or recovery.

Hydrotherapy helped the injured runner rebuild strength without strain.

Hygge n.

A cozy feeling of comfort, warmth, and togetherness.

Candles and shared soup brought hygge to the rainy evening.

Hygiene n.

Practices that protect cleanliness and health.

Good hand hygiene reduced illness across the school.