

Positive verbs that start with H

16 verbs with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Habilitate v.

To equip someone with useful skills and abilities.
The training center helps habilitate adults for independent work.

Hail v.

To praise or acclaim someone with enthusiasm.
Critics hailed the young conductor for her vivid interpretation.

Hallow v.

To honor something as sacred or deeply respected.
The annual gathering hallows the memory of the town's founders.

Handcraft v.

To make something by hand with care and skill.
Local artists handcraft every tile for the restored fountain.

Harmonize v.

To bring parts into agreement or combine them pleasingly.
The singers learned to harmonize on the final refrain.

Heal v.

To recover health or help damage become whole again.
Time, care, and honest conversation can help a friendship heal.

Hearten v.

To give someone courage, confidence, or hope.
The early results will hearten everyone who supported the project.

Heed v.

To pay careful attention to useful advice or warnings.
Wise climbers heed the ranger's guidance before entering the canyon.

Heighten v.

To increase the strength of a useful quality or pleasant experience.
Soft lighting can heighten the warmth of the small room.

Help v.

To make a task easier or improve a person's situation.
Clear signs help visitors find the clinic without stress.

Hone v.

To refine and improve a skill through practice.
Weekly rehearsals helped the quartet hone its timing.

Honor v.

To show respect for someone or faithfully keep a commitment.
The new garden will honor the volunteers who cared for the park.

Host v.

To receive guests or organize an event for others.

The museum will host a free workshop for local families.

Hug v.

To hold someone closely as a sign of affection, comfort, or joy.

Mina hugged her brother when he arrived safely.

Humanize v.

To make something more compassionate, relatable, or considerate.

Personal stories humanize the statistics without obscuring the facts.

Hydrate v.

To supply enough water for health and proper function.

Shaded fountains help cyclists hydrate along the summer route.