

Positive verbs that start with I

24 verbs with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Ignite v.

To spark enthusiasm, curiosity, or constructive action.
Her opening question helped ignite a lively exchange of ideas.

Illuminate v.

To provide light, clarity, or deeper understanding.
The restored windows illuminate the hall throughout the morning.

Illumine v.

To light up or make an idea clearer.
A single diagram can illumine the relationship between the two systems.

Imagine v.

To form a new idea, possibility, or mental picture.
Together, the students imagined a safer route to school.

Immortalize v.

To preserve someone or something in lasting honor.
The mural will immortalize the volunteers who rebuilt the theater.

Immunize v.

To protect someone against a particular infectious disease.
The mobile clinic will immunize children in remote villages.

Impart v.

To share knowledge, wisdom, or another valuable quality.
The retired engineer returned each week to impart practical skills.

Impress v.

To earn admiration through skill, quality, or character.
The apprentice hoped to impress the judges with careful workmanship.

Improve v.

To make or become better in quality, condition, or usefulness.
The editor changed the opening to improve clarity.

Improvise v.

To create or adapt a workable solution with what is available.
The crew had to improvise a safe cover until the new part arrived.

Include v.

To welcome someone as part of a group or activity.
Please include the newer volunteers in tomorrow's planning session.

Influence v.

To help shape an outcome, opinion, or action.
Her careful research may influence a safer building standard.

Inform v.

To give useful facts or knowledge to someone.

The signs inform hikers about weather risks before the steep section.

Initiate v.

To cause a useful process or activity to begin.

A resident can initiate a review by submitting three signatures.

Innovate v.

To introduce a useful new idea, method, or product.

Small farms often innovate when tools must fit local conditions.

Inquire v.

To seek knowledge by asking thoughtful questions.

Visitors can inquire about the artist's methods after the demonstration.

Inspire v.

To awaken enthusiasm, confidence, creativity, or purpose.

The community garden may inspire more neighbors to grow food together.

Inspire v.

To fill someone with courage, energy, or hope.

The choir's warm welcome helped inspire the nervous soloist.

Integrate v.

To combine parts so they work effectively as a whole.

The plan will integrate walking paths with the bus network.

Intercede v.

To act on another person's behalf in difficulty.

The advocate agreed to intercede when the family lost housing.

Intuit v.

To understand something naturally without conscious reasoning.

Experienced gardeners can intuit when young plants need shade.

Invent v.

To create a new device, method, or idea.

The students hope to invent a quieter school bell.

Invigorate v.

To give fresh energy, strength, or enthusiasm.

A brisk walk can invigorate the mind before a long study session.

Invite v.

To ask someone warmly to join or participate.

The organizers invite residents to shape the new garden plan.