

Positive verbs that start with L

24 verbs with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Land v.

To secure or achieve something that was actively sought.
Priya worked steadily to land the apprenticeship she wanted.

Landscape v.

To design and improve outdoor land for beauty or use.
Volunteers will landscape the courtyard with shade trees and herbs.

Laud v.

To praise someone or something for a worthy achievement.
Residents laud the volunteers who restored the neglected playground.

Laugh v.

To express happiness or amusement with a natural sound or smile.
Everyone began to laugh when the puppy proudly carried in the broom.

Launch v.

To begin a new effort, project, or activity.
The library will launch a free reading club for local families.

Lead v.

To guide people or work toward a result.
She will lead the review and make sure every concern is recorded.

Leapfrog v.

To advance quickly by surpassing an earlier stage or obstacle.
The new network could leapfrog years of unreliable service.

Learn v.

To gain knowledge, skill, or understanding.
Teams learn faster when mistakes can be discussed safely.

Leaven v.

To make a situation lighter, warmer, or more enjoyable.
Her gentle humor helped leaven a demanding afternoon.

Lend v.

To give something for temporary use or offer help and support.
Neighbors lend tools to anyone working in the shared garden.

Leverage v.

To use a resource effectively to achieve a better result.
The cooperative will leverage local knowledge to reduce food waste.

Liaise v.

To communicate and cooperate so people or groups work smoothly.
Nora will liaise with both schools before the shared event.

Liberate v.

To free someone or something from an unfair limit or burden.
The new device can liberate patients from daily travel to the clinic.

Lift v.

To raise something or improve a person's mood or condition.
The choir's final song seemed to lift the whole audience.

Lighten v.

To make a burden, mood, or situation less heavy or serious.
Sharing the work will lighten the load for every volunteer.

Like v.

To find someone or something pleasant, good, or enjoyable.
The children like the new library because it has quiet places to read.

Link v.

To connect people, ideas, or things in a useful way.
The program will link new graduates with experienced mentors.

Listen v.

To give careful attention to sound or another person's words.
Good facilitators listen for concerns that have not yet been stated clearly.

Liven v.

To make a place, event, or discussion more energetic.
Fresh music will liven the square during the market.

Loosen v.

To make something less tight, rigid, or restricted.
A short walk can loosen stiff muscles after a long journey.

Lounge v.

To rest in a relaxed and comfortable position.
Guests can lounge beside the pool after the hike.

Love v.

To care for someone or value something deeply.
They love the neighborhood enough to keep improving it.

Lull v.

To calm or soothe someone into a peaceful state.
The steady rain can lull the baby to sleep.

Luxuriate v.

To take deep pleasure in comfort or a pleasant experience.
After the hike, they luxuriate in the warmth of the mineral pool.