

Positive verbs that start with O

38 verbs with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Observe v.

To watch or notice something carefully.

The trainees observe each demonstration before trying the technique.

Obtain v.

To gain or secure something through effort or request.

The clinic helped each family obtain clean drinking water.

Obviate v.

To remove a need, difficulty, or possible problem.

A covered walkway will obviate the need for rain delays.

Offer v.

To present help, an idea, or an opportunity for someone to accept.

The community center will offer free evening classes.

Optimize v.

To make something as effective or useful as possible.

The technician adjusted the controls to optimize energy use.

Orchestrate v.

To coordinate many parts into a coherent result.

Mina helped orchestrate a smooth move into the renovated library.

Organize v.

To arrange people or things into a clear, useful structure.

Volunteers will organize the donated books by reading level.

Originate v.

To create or begin something new.

The idea originated with students who used the garden every day.

Outbrave v.

To face or surpass a challenge through greater courage.

The smallest climber managed to outbrave everyone during the storm.

Outclass v.

To prove clearly superior in quality or skill.

Her final design managed to outclass every costlier alternative.

Outcompete v.

To succeed more effectively than a competitor.

The cooperative learned to outcompete larger farms through exceptional freshness.

Outdistance v.

To move or progress well ahead of others.

The lead cyclist began to outdistance the field on the final climb.

Outdo v.

To perform better than a previous effort or rival.

Each apprentice tried to outdo the care shown in the previous repair.

Outgive v.

To surpass others in generosity or charitable giving.

No one could outgive the quiet donor during the winter appeal.

Outgrow v.

To develop beyond an earlier limit, need, or habit.

With practice, children often outgrow their fear of deep water.

Outlast v.

To remain strong or useful longer than a difficulty or rival.

The sturdy bridge should outlast many seasons of heavy rain.

Outlive v.

To live or remain useful longer than expected.

These well-made boots should outlive several cheaper pairs.

Outmaneuver v.

To gain an advantage through more skillful planning.

The small firm used careful timing to outmaneuver its larger rival.

Outmatch v.

To surpass someone or something in ability or quality.

The handmade lens continued to outmatch the imported model for clarity.

Outpace v.

To progress or perform faster than something else.

Solar installations began to outpace the yearly target.

Outperform v.

To achieve better results than a standard or comparison.

The repaired pump continued to outperform the older model.

Outplay v.

To perform more skillfully in a game or contest.

The home side began to outplay the champions after halftime.

Outrun v.

To run faster or escape through speed.

With steady training, Nia learned to outrun her earlier times.

Outscore v.

To earn more points in a game or contest.

Strong teamwork helped the visitors outscore a more experienced side.

Outshine v.

To be more impressive or successful through strong qualities.

Her thoughtful presentation managed to outshine the costly display.

Outsmart v.

To overcome a challenge through superior thinking.

The students used a simple checklist to outsmart the tricky puzzle.

Outstrip v.

To exceed others in progress, quality, or performance.

Her progress began to outstrip even her coach's hopeful forecast.

Outthink v.

To reach a better solution through stronger reasoning.

Mei paused long enough to outthink the problem instead of rushing.

Outwit v.

To overcome a challenge through clever thinking.

The gardener used netting to outwit the birds without harming them.

Outwork v.

To surpass others through sustained effort.

Consistent preparation allowed the smaller crew to outwork its rivals.

Overachieve v.

To perform better than the expected standard.

The small team continued to overachieve by focusing on its strongest service.

Overcome v.

To succeed in dealing with a problem, fear, or difficulty.

With patient practice, he began to overcome his fear of deep water.

Overdeliver v.

To provide more value or better results than promised.

The repair shop chose to overdeliver by cleaning every returned bicycle.

Overflow v.

To be filled beyond capacity with something abundant.

By June, the window boxes overflow with bright flowers.

Overhaul v.

To repair or improve something thoroughly.

The volunteers will overhaul the playground before school resumes.

Overjoy v.

To fill someone with great happiness.

The surprise reunion will overjoy their grandparents.

Overperform v.

To achieve better results than expected.

The revised battery continued to overperform in cold-weather tests.

Own v.

To accept responsibility for an action or decision.

A strong leader will own the mistake and make the correction.