

Positive words that start with C

222 words with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

Adjectives

Calm adj.

Peaceful, steady, and not overwhelmed by strong emotion.

Her calm reply gave everyone space to think.

Can-do adj.

Eager and resourceful when facing practical challenges.

Her can-do attitude kept the neighborhood cleanup moving.

Candid adj.

Honest, direct, and open in expression.

The candid review named both the strong results and the errors.

Canny adj.

Showing practical wisdom and careful judgment.

The canny buyer compared repair costs before choosing a bicycle.

Canorous adj.

Pleasantly musical, rich, and melodious in sound.

A canorous birdsong drifted through the open classroom window.

Capable adj.

Having the ability to complete a task effectively.

The capable crew repaired the bridge ahead of schedule.

Capacious adj.

Having generous space, range, or capacity.

The capacious hall accommodated every family at the fundraiser.

Captivating adj.

So interesting or charming that it holds attention.

The documentary offers a captivating view of reef life.

Career-high adj.

Representing the best result achieved in someone's career.

The goalkeeper finished the season with a career-high save total.

Carefree adj.

Free from worry and able to enjoy the moment.

The children spent a carefree afternoon beside the stream.

Careful adj.

Giving close attention to quality, safety, or detail.

A careful technician checked every connection twice.

Caring adj.

Showing kindness and concern for another's well-being.
A caring neighbor brought soup and offered to walk the dog.

Catchy adj.

Pleasantly memorable and easy to repeat.
The choir taught everyone a catchy refrain before the parade.

Celebrated adj.

Widely admired and praised for an achievement or quality.
The celebrated chef still teaches a free class each month.

Celebratory adj.

Expressing joy or recognition after a welcome event.
A celebratory dinner marked the shelter's tenth anniversary.

Celestial adj.

Heavenly, radiant, or exceptionally beautiful.
The harp and flute created a celestial sound in the chapel.

Centered adj.

Calm, balanced, and secure in one's values or attention.
A few quiet breaths helped the speaker feel centered.

Certain adj.

Confident, settled, and free from serious doubt.
After the final test, the engineer was certain the bridge was safe.

Change-ready adj.

Prepared to adapt constructively when circumstances shift.
The change-ready crew learned the safer process in one afternoon.

Charismatic adj.

Having a warm and compelling presence that inspires others.
The charismatic conductor brought energy to every rehearsal.

Charitable adj.

Generous in giving help and fair in judging others.
The charitable group supplied winter coats without asking for publicity.

Charmed adj.

Delighted by someone or something pleasing.
Visitors were charmed by the village's flower-filled lanes.

Charming adj.

Pleasant, attractive, and likely to inspire affection.
The charming bookshop has a sunny corner for children.

Cheerful adj.

Noticeably happy, hopeful, or pleasant in manner.
The cheerful volunteer greeted each visitor by name.

Cherished adj.

Deeply loved, protected, or valued.
The restored photograph is a cherished family keepsake.

Cherubic adj.

Sweet, innocent, and appealing in appearance.

The toddler gave a cherubic smile from beneath her wool hat.

Chic adj.

Stylish, elegant, and attractively up to date.

A chic linen jacket completed her simple concert outfit.

Child-friendly adj.

Safe, welcoming, and suitable for children.

The child-friendly museum placed hands-on exhibits at every turn.

Chipper adj.

Cheerful, lively, and full of bright energy.

Even at sunrise, the chipper guide greeted hikers warmly.

Chirpy adj.

Noticeably cheerful, lively, and talkative.

His chirpy message lifted everyone's mood before the meeting.

Chivalrous adj.

Courteous, honorable, and protective toward others.

His chivalrous offer ensured everyone crossed the icy path safely.

Choice adj.

Of especially high quality or carefully selected.

The market displayed a choice selection of summer peaches.

Civic-minded adj.

Concerned with improving and supporting the wider community.

Civic-minded residents organized rides to the polling station.

Civil adj.

Polite and respectful, especially during disagreement.

Both speakers kept the difficult debate civil.

Class-leading adj.

Better performing or more advanced than comparable options.

The class-leading filter removes contaminants while using little power.

Classic adj.

Excellent and enduring in style or quality.

The library screened a classic comedy for families.

Classy adj.

Stylish, admirable, and showing good judgment.

Her classy response praised the winner without making excuses.

Clean adj.

Free from dirt, pollution, or unwanted material.

The new filter provides clean water for the entire village.

Clean-cut adj.

Neat, healthy-looking, and clearly presented.

The clean-cut design makes each instruction easy to find.

Clean-living adj.

Following habits intended to support health and wellbeing.
The clean-living athlete protects time for sleep and recovery.

Clear adj.

Easy to understand, see, hear, or recognize.
The guide gives clear directions from the station.

Clear-cut adj.

Definite, straightforward, and free from confusing uncertainty.
The test produced a clear-cut result that everyone could verify.

Clear-eyed adj.

Realistic, perceptive, and able to judge without illusion.
Her clear-eyed review recognized progress without hiding the remaining risk.

Clear-spoken adj.

Expressing ideas honestly and in readily understood language.
The clear-spoken doctor answered each question without using jargon.

Clearheaded adj.

Able to think calmly and make sound judgments.
The clearheaded captain checked the weather before leaving harbor.

Clearsighted adj.

Showing sound judgment and an accurate view of circumstances.
The clearsighted chair postponed the vote until costs were known.

Clever adj.

Quick to understand and skilled at finding useful solutions.
A clever hinge allowed the table to fold against the wall.

Close-knit adj.

United by strong, supportive relationships.
A close-knit group of neighbors maintained the shared orchard.

Clubbable adj.

Friendly, sociable, and pleasant to spend time with.
The clubbable newcomer soon knew every gardener by name.

Clued-in adj.

Well informed and aware of relevant details.
The clued-in receptionist knew which entrance had step-free access.

Clutch adj.

Exceptionally effective at a decisive or pressured moment.
Her clutch save protected the team's narrow lead.

Coachable adj.

Ready to learn from guidance and useful feedback.
The coachable goalkeeper asked to repeat the difficult drill.

Coequal adj.

Equal in rank, importance, or rightful standing.
The charter treats the two councils as coequal partners.

Cogent adj.

Clear, logical, and strongly persuasive.

Rina made a cogent case for restoring the evening bus.

Coherent adj.

Logical, consistent, and easy to understand as a whole.

The researcher turned scattered notes into a coherent report.

Cohesive adj.

United and working well together as a whole.

The editor shaped the interviews into a cohesive story.

Collaborative adj.

Working with others toward a shared result.

The collaborative workshop gave quieter participants several ways to contribute.

Collegial adj.

Friendly, respectful, and cooperative among colleagues.

A collegial discussion resolved the scheduling conflict before lunch.

Colorfast adj.

Resistant to fading or running when washed.

Colorfast fabric kept the handmade banners bright through several storms.

Colorful adj.

Full of vivid color, interest, or lively variety.

A colorful market filled the square each Saturday.

Comedic adj.

Amusing, playful, and intended to produce laughter.

Her comedic timing transformed a simple mix-up into the evening's highlight.

Comely adj.

Pleasant and attractive in appearance.

The comely stone cottage stood beside an apple orchard.

Comfortable adj.

Feeling physically at ease, safe, or relaxed.

The padded chair kept her comfortable during the long concert.

Comforting adj.

Providing relief from sadness, pain, or worry.

The smell of warm bread was comforting after the cold journey.

Comfy adj.

Comfortable, cozy, and pleasantly easy to relax in.

We found a comfy bench beneath the old chestnut tree.

Commanding adj.

Impressive, confident, and able to attract attention or respect.

The soloist gave a commanding performance without overshadowing the choir.

Commendable adj.

Deserving sincere praise and approval.

Their decision to publish the full results was commendable.

Committed adj.

Firmly dedicated to a person, purpose, or responsibility.

The committed volunteers return every Tuesday evening.

Common-sense adj.

Based on sound, practical, and readily understood judgment.

A common-sense repair kept the gate safe until new parts arrived.

Communal adj.

Shared by and intended to benefit a community.

The communal kitchen gives neighbors a place to cook together.

Community-minded adj.

Motivated by concern for local people and shared wellbeing.

A community-minded baker donates the day's extra loaves each evening.

Companionable adj.

Friendly, sociable, and pleasant to spend time with.

They shared a companionable silence beside the fire.

Compassionate adj.

Aware of another person's difficulty and moved to help.

The compassionate manager adjusted the deadline after hearing the circumstances.

Compatible adj.

Able to work or exist together successfully.

The new charger is compatible with all the library tablets.

Compelling adj.

Powerfully interesting, convincing, or worthy of attention.

The students presented a compelling proposal for a shaded courtyard.

Competent adj.

Having enough skill and judgment to do something well.

A competent electrician checked the wiring before the hall reopened.

Complete adj.

Containing everything needed and lacking no essential part.

The archive now has a complete record of the restoration.

Composed adj.

Calm, self-controlled, and ready to think clearly.

The composed pilot guided everyone through the delay.

Comprehensible adj.

Clear enough to be understood without unnecessary difficulty.

Large labels made the emergency instructions comprehensible at a glance.

Comprehensive adj.

Including all or nearly all important details.

The guide offers a comprehensive list of accessible entrances.

Conciliatory adj.

Intended to restore goodwill and reduce disagreement.

His conciliatory reply reopened a conversation that had stalled.

Concise adj.

Clear and complete without unnecessary words.

Her concise summary made the decision easy to review.

Confidence-building adj.

Helping someone develop greater trust in their abilities.

The confidence-building workshop ended with a successful solo presentation.

Confident adj.

Sure of one's ability or judgment without needing to boast.

She felt confident presenting the findings because she had checked every source.

Congenial adj.

Friendly, pleasant, and well suited to one's nature.

The congenial host made every visitor feel at home.

Congruent adj.

Consistent, harmonious, and in agreement with relevant principles.

The new policy is congruent with the cooperative's founding values.

Conscientious adj.

Careful, responsible, and guided by a wish to do right.

The conscientious inspector documented every safety check.

Conscious adj.

Aware of something and giving it deliberate attention.

The designer remained conscious of readers with low vision.

Considerate adj.

Careful not to inconvenience or hurt other people.

The considerate tenant warned neighbors before the noisy repair.

Considered adj.

Carefully thought through and supported by sound judgment.

The panel issued a considered response after reviewing every submission.

Consistent adj.

Reliable and steady in quality, behavior, or effort.

Her consistent practice improved both speed and accuracy.

Constant adj.

Steady, dependable, and continuing over time.

His constant support helped the project survive several setbacks.

Constructive adj.

Intended to improve a situation through useful, respectful action.

His constructive feedback identified the problem and suggested a workable next step.

Consummate adj.

Showing the highest degree of skill and accomplishment.

A consummate craftsman repaired the intricate clock.

Contemplative adj.

Calmly thoughtful and inclined toward careful reflection.

The contemplative student paused before responding to the difficult question.

Content adj.

Peacefully satisfied with what one has or is doing.

She felt content reading beside the open window.

Contented adj.

Feeling peaceful happiness and satisfaction.

The contented cat slept in a patch of afternoon sun.

Convenient adj.

Easy to access, use, or fit into practical needs.

A convenient evening clinic saved families a long daytime journey.

Conversant adj.

Knowledgeable and comfortably familiar with a subject.

The conversant guide answered detailed questions about the wetland birds.

Convincing adj.

Able to earn belief through strong reasons or evidence.

The pilot study produced a convincing case for expansion.

Convivial adj.

Warm, sociable, and full of shared enjoyment.

A convivial supper followed the final community rehearsal.

Cool adj.

Calm, composed, or pleasantly impressive.

The goalkeeper stayed cool during the final penalty kick.

Coolheaded adj.

Calm and able to make sound decisions under pressure.

The coolheaded ranger found a safe route around the flooded trail.

Cooperative adj.

Willing to work helpfully with others.

The cooperative neighbors shared tools during the cleanup.

Copacetic adj.

In excellent order and proceeding satisfactorily.

After the wiring check, everything in the studio was copacetic.

Cordial adj.

Warm, polite, and sincerely friendly.

The rivals exchanged a cordial greeting before the match.

Correct adj.

Accurate and free from error.

The technician found the correct setting in the manual.

Cosmopolitan adj.

Open to many cultures, ideas, and ways of living.

The cosmopolitan host made guests from six countries feel welcome.

Cost-effective adj.

Providing strong value without unnecessary expense.

The cost-effective insulation lowered bills throughout the winter.

Courageous adj.

Showing strength in the face of fear or difficulty.

The courageous witness spoke clearly despite the pressure.

Courteous adj.

Polite, respectful, and considerate toward others.

The courteous driver waited while the family crossed.

Courtly adj.

Gracefully polite, dignified, and attentive in manner.

With a courtly gesture, he offered the elder his seat.

Cozy adj.

Warm, comfortable, and pleasantly sheltered.

The reading nook felt cozy on the rainy afternoon.

Crackerjack adj.

Exceptionally skillful, effective, or impressive.

A crackerjack mechanic restored the van before the food delivery.

Creative adj.

Able to produce original and useful ideas or work.

The creative mechanic adapted a spare part to fit the old engine.

Credible adj.

Believable and worthy of trust.

The report is credible because every figure has a source.

Creditworthy adj.

Reliable enough to deserve financial trust or confidence.

The creditworthy cooperative qualified for a lower-interest equipment loan.

Crisp adj.

Fresh, clear, or pleasantly firm.

The editor gave the introduction a crisp and confident style.

Crystal-clear adj.

Extremely easy to understand or see.

The instructor gave crystal-clear directions before the climb.

Cuddly adj.

Soft, warm, and pleasant to hold close.

The cuddly rescue dog quickly became the children's favorite.

Cultured adj.

Showing broad knowledge, refined taste, and thoughtful manners.

The cultured host could discuss music without making beginners feel small.

Curable adj.

Able to be healed or successfully treated.

Early testing revealed a curable infection and brought immediate relief.

Curative adj.

Able to heal or improve a harmful condition.

Researchers are testing the plant's possible curative properties.

Curious adj.

Eager to learn, explore, or understand something.
The curious student asked how the old clock worked.

Cute adj.

Attractive in a charming and endearing way.
The foal's wobbly first steps were undeniably cute.

Cutting-edge adj.

Using the newest and most advanced ideas or methods.
The cutting-edge sensor detects leaks before walls are damaged.

NounsCalmness n.

A peaceful and steady state of mind or manner.
Her calmness helped the frightened horse settle.

Camaraderie n.

Warm trust and friendship among people who spend time together.
Shared meals built camaraderie among the new hospital volunteers.

Candor n.

The quality of speaking honestly and openly.
His candor allowed the team to correct the problem early.

Capability n.

The skill or power needed to do something well.
The new pump gives the station greater firefighting capability.

Capstone n.

A crowning achievement that completes substantial work.
The public exhibition became a capstone for the apprentices' training.

Care package n.

A parcel of useful or comforting gifts sent with affection.
Her care package included tea, socks, and three handwritten notes.

Caregiver n.

A person who regularly supports someone who needs care.
The caregiver listened patiently and wrote down every question.

Catharsis n.

Emotional release that brings relief or renewed calm.
Painting the storm provided catharsis after a difficult week.

Celebration n.

A joyful event or act that honors something meaningful.
The harvest celebration brought three generations together.

Centerpiece n.

The most admired or important feature of something.
The restored clock became the centerpiece of the town library.

Certainty n.

A firm and well-founded sense that something is true.

The signed agreement gave both families welcome certainty.

Champ n.

An admired winner or exceptionally capable person.

The spelling champ helped younger pupils practice without embarrassment.

Champion n.

A winner or a strong supporter of a person or cause.

She became a champion for safer streets near every school.

Change-maker n.

A person who creates useful social or practical improvement.

The young change-maker organized a free repair workshop.

Charisma n.

A compelling personal warmth that attracts and inspires others.

The host's quiet charisma made newcomers feel included.

Charity n.

Generous help given to people or causes in need.

The concert raised enough money for the local food charity.

Charm n.

A pleasing quality that attracts affection or delight.

The little theater's hand-painted signs add to its charm.

Charmer n.

A person whose warmth and appeal delight others.

The gentle puppy was a charmer with every visitor.

Cheerleader n.

A person who actively encourages and supports others.

Mina is the team's most reliable cheerleader after a setback.

Chivalry n.

Honorable conduct marked by courage, courtesy, and generosity.

Her chivalry showed in how she defended the absent volunteer.

Chuckle n.

A quiet, warm laugh expressing gentle amusement.

Her clever rhyme drew a chuckle from the tired nurses.

Cinch n.

Something certain to succeed or pleasantly easy to do.

With labeled pieces, assembling the shelf became a cinch.

Civility n.

Polite and respectful behavior toward others.

Civility allowed the council to discuss the dispute productively.

Clarity n.

The quality of being clear, understandable, and exact.

A labeled diagram added clarity to the repair guide.

Class act n.

A person admired for gracious and honorable conduct.

Devin was a class act, praising his rival after the final.

Clemency n.

Mercy shown by reducing punishment or hardship.

The governor granted clemency after reviewing the new evidence.

Closeness n.

A warm state of trust, affection, or connection.

Working on the garden deepened the siblings' closeness.

Closure n.

A sense of resolution that allows healing or acceptance.

The returned journal gave the family some welcome closure.

Codebreaker n.

A skilled solver of secret messages or difficult patterns.

The young codebreaker spotted the repeated symbol before anyone else.

Cohesion n.

The quality of holding together as a united whole.

Shared goals created cohesion among the new volunteers.

Collaboration n.

Work done jointly toward a shared result.

The mural was a collaboration between artists and local children.

Comity n.

Mutual courtesy and goodwill between people or groups.

Years of exchange visits restored comity between the neighboring towns.

Commitment n.

A firm promise or steady dedication to a purpose.

Her commitment kept the literacy program open through winter.

Common ground n.

Shared beliefs or interests that support mutual understanding.

The neighbors found common ground in protecting the riverside path.

Community n.

A group connected by place, interests, or mutual support.

The community rebuilt the playground after the flood.

Companion n.

A person or animal who shares time and offers company.

Her rescue dog became a steady companion on daily walks.

Compassion n.

Concern for suffering combined with a wish to help.

Compassion led the neighbors to organize meals for the family.

Compliment n.

A sincere expression of praise or admiration.

Her specific compliment recognized the apprentice's patience.

Composure n.

Calm self-control, especially in a difficult moment.

His composure reassured the passengers during the rough landing.

Concinnity n.

Elegant harmony among the parts of a whole.

The garden's concinnity came from repeating simple shapes and colors.

Concord n.

Peaceful agreement and harmony between people.

The shared project restored concord between the two groups.

Confidant n.

A trusted person with whom private thoughts are safely shared.

Her oldest confidant listened carefully before offering any advice.

Confidence n.

Trust in one's ability, judgment, or likelihood of success.

Practice gave the new speaker confidence before the assembly.

Connoisseur n.

A knowledgeable person with refined appreciation of a subject.

The tea connoisseur praised the farmer's most delicate blend.

Consensus n.

Broad agreement reached through discussion and shared consideration.

The workshop reached consensus on three priorities for the park.

Consent n.

Freely given permission based on clear understanding and choice.

The researcher confirmed each participant's consent before recording began.

Consideration n.

Careful thought for another person's needs or feelings.

A ramp was added out of consideration for visitors with limited mobility.

Consolation n.

Comfort that eases disappointment, grief, or difficulty.

The thriving saplings offered consolation after the ancient tree fell.

Consonance n.

Agreement or harmony among ideas, people, or sounds.

The final design achieved consonance between beauty and accessibility.

Contentment n.

A peaceful sense of satisfaction and enoughness.

Contentment settled over the campers as the fire crackled.

Contribution n.

Something given to help a shared effort succeed.

Her clear map was a valuable contribution to the rescue plan.

Conviction n.

A strong and sincere belief that guides action.

Her conviction that every child can learn shaped the program.

Courage n.

The strength to face fear, pain, or difficulty.

It took courage to report the mistake and propose a repair.

Courtesy n.

Polite and considerate behavior toward other people.

A simple courtesy made the crowded journey easier for everyone.

Craftsmanship n.

Skill and care shown in making something well.

The table's smooth joints reveal exceptional craftsmanship.

Craftsperson n.

A person who makes things with developed skill and care.

The craftsperson shaped the replacement handle from reclaimed oak.

Creativity n.

The ability to form original and useful ideas.

Limited space encouraged creativity in the garden design.

Crowd-pleaser n.

A person or thing that reliably delights an audience.

The band's final song was an irresistible crowd-pleaser.

Curiosity n.

A strong desire to learn, explore, or understand.

Curiosity led the children to examine every tide pool.

Cynosure n.

A person or thing receiving admiration and eager attention.

The restored fountain became the cynosure of the summer festival.

VerbsCaptivate v.

To hold someone's attention through great interest or charm.

The storyteller can captivate even the youngest listeners.

Care v.

To give thoughtful attention to a person, need, or outcome.

Good editors care about what the reader will understand.

Caress v.

To touch someone or something gently and affectionately.

She paused to caress the old dog's silver muzzle.

Celebrate v.

To recognize a happy event, effort, or achievement with appreciation.

The class will celebrate every student who completes the reading challenge.

Cheer v.

To give joy, hope, or encouragement to someone.

A visit from her teammates helped cheer the recovering runner.

Cherish v.

To value and care for someone or something deeply.
They cherish the letters their grandmother saved.

Clarify v.

To make an idea, statement, or situation easier to understand.
One diagram can clarify how rainwater reaches the storage tank.

Cleanse v.

To make something clean, fresh, or free from harmful material.
Spring rain helped cleanse the dust from every garden leaf.

Co-create v.

To create something jointly through shared ideas and effort.
Residents and architects will co-create the new playground design.

Coalesce v.

To unite gradually into one effective whole.
Several small campaigns coalesced around the safer street proposal.

Coexist v.

To live or work together peacefully despite differences.
Wildlife and farms can coexist when riverbanks are protected.

Collaborate v.

To work with others toward a shared result.
Three schools collaborate to maintain the community greenhouse.

Comfort v.

To ease someone's sadness, pain, or worry.
A familiar song helped comfort the child during the storm.

Commend v.

To praise someone or something sincerely.
The judge chose to commend the team for its careful research.

Communicate v.

To share information or feelings clearly with others.
Strong teams communicate early when a deadline is at risk.

Complement v.

To add a quality that improves or completes something.
Fresh herbs complement the sweet flavor of the tomatoes.

Concentrate v.

To direct full attention toward a task or idea.
Quiet music helps Ana concentrate while she studies.

Congratulate v.

To express pleasure and praise for someone's success.
The coach called to congratulate each runner who finished.

Connect v.

To bring people together through communication or shared experience.
Weekly suppers connect new residents with longtime neighbors.

Conquer v.

To overcome a challenge through courage, effort, or skill.
Daily practice helped Luis conquer his fear of deep water.

Conserve v.

To protect something valuable from waste, damage, or loss.
New irrigation controls conserve water during the hottest weeks.

Console v.

To give comfort to someone experiencing sadness or disappointment.
Her teammates stayed behind to console the injured runner.

Consult v.

To seek or offer informed advice before deciding.
The planners will consult residents before changing the bus route.

Contribute v.

To give time, effort, ideas, or resources toward a result.
Every resident can contribute one idea to the neighborhood plan.

Coordinate v.

To organize people or parts so they work well together.
Leila will coordinate the meal deliveries this weekend.

Craft v.

To make something carefully and skillfully.
Local artists craft each lantern from recycled paper.

Create v.

To bring something new or useful into existence.
The students will create signs for the nature trail.

Cuddle v.

To hold someone close in a warm and affectionate way.
The sleepy child climbed onto the sofa to cuddle her father.

Cultivate v.

To help a skill, quality, plant, or relationship grow.
Weekly discussions cultivate trust among the new teammates.

Cure v.

To restore health or remove a harmful condition.
The treatment can cure the infection when taken early.

AdverbsCalmly adv.

In a peaceful, steady, and controlled manner.
Darius calmly explained the evacuation route to the group.

Capably adv.

In a skillful and effective way.
The apprentice capably handled the repair on her own.

Carefully adv.

With close attention to quality, safety, or detail.

She carefully wrapped each fragile cup before the move.

Cheerfully adv.

In a happy, willing, and positive manner.

Omar cheerfully carried the extra chairs into the hall.

Clearly adv.

In a way that is easy to understand or recognize.

The nurse clearly explained when to take each medicine.

Courageously adv.

In a brave and determined manner.

The residents courageously defended the last public garden.