

Positive words that start with X

11 words with meanings and examples. Updated 10 October 2026. Free to print and share in a classroom.

X-factor n.

A distinctive quality that gives someone or something special appeal or effectiveness.

Her ability to make complex ideas clear was the team's x-factor.

Xenial adj.

Hospitable and friendly toward guests or strangers.

The village's xenial customs made travelers feel protected.

Xenially adv.

In a hospitable and friendly way toward guests or strangers.

The hosts received their travelers xenially.

Xenodochial adj.

Welcoming and generous to strangers or visitors.

The innkeeper was known for a xenodochial spirit.

Xenodochially adv.

With hospitality and kindness toward strangers.

The villagers welcomed the new arrivals xenodochially.

Xenodochy n.

Hospitality and kindness shown to strangers or travelers.

The mountain shelter has a long tradition of xenodochy.

Xenophile n.

A person who appreciates people, customs, or cultures from other places.

As a xenophile, Mina approached each exchange with curiosity and respect.

Xenophilia n.

Appreciation of people, cultures, or customs from other places.

Her xenophilia inspired years of respectful cultural exchange.

Xenophilic adj.

Showing interest in and appreciation for other cultures or peoples.

The festival's xenophilic program invited artists from six countries.

Xenophilous adj.

Appreciative of people, cultures, or customs from other places.

His xenophilous outlook made him an attentive guest abroad.

Xenophily n.

Appreciation of foreign people, cultures, or customs.

The exchange program encouraged xenophily through respectful, reciprocal learning.